Summary

Amanda practices exclusively in the field of Family Law and is a leading Senior Junior in her field on the North Eastern Circuit. Amanda is one of Spire Barristers most experienced family law practitioners.

Amongst Amanda's strengths is her client care and her ability to make very vulnerable and emotional clients feel at ease. She can explain very difficult legal concepts to lay clients in a way that they can understand without feeling patronised.

Areas of Practice

PUBLIC LAW CHILDREN

Her practice covers the full range of Family work and she is very experienced in difficult public law cases involving serious injury and cases involving detailed medical evidence relating to serious sexual abuse. She regularly deals with cases involving allegations of shaken baby syndrome, fractures, bruising etc. on behalf of Local Authorities, Parents, Guardians-ad-litem and the official solicitor.

INJUNCTIONS

Amanda has extensive experience of adoption law particularly matters concerning child abduction or removal from jurisdiction.
